Dear Madam,

This personal letter from me may surprise you, but your name and address were transmitted to me by the management of Excelsior Films, who request the pleasure of your company at the Continental Première of my latest film "GOLD".

This special gala-performance will take place, the day after the world première in London, at the Rex Cinema in Antwerp on Friday, September 6th at 8.30 p.m.

It is with great pleasure that I shall personally attend this gala evening in Antwerp to present this new film, together with Director Peter Hunt and Producer Michael Klinger.

I should be delighted if you could join us for the "Gold"-celebration in Anneessensstraat.

Sincerely Yours,

Roger Moore

P.S. Please return the enclosed booking card before August 30th to the Rex Cinema.
